C. INSTRUCTIONS TO ASSESSOR:

The Newfoundland and Labrador Psychology Board is entrusted with the task of administering the Psychologists Act, 2005. In order to determine the eligibility of applicants for registration under the Act, the Board is required to evaluate the acceptability of the applicant's professional experience in psychology. Your answers to these questions will help to satisfy the Board that the applicant is professionally involved in the practice of psychology.

The Board's guidelines for acceptable professional experience are given here to aid you in making your assessment of the applicant.

"Professional experience in the field of psychology acceptable to the Board" means experience in one or more of the following areas:

- (a) Psychological evaluation, diagnosis and assessment of the functioning of individuals and groups in a variety of settings and activities.
- (b) Interventions of a psychological nature to facilitate the functioning of individuals and groups. Such interventions may include psychological counselling, psychotherapy and consultation.
- (c) Research or teaching in the area of psychology.
- (d) Consultation relating to (a), (b), or (c).
- (e) Programme development of services in the areas of (a), (b), (c), or (d).
- (f) Supervision of psychological services.

In order for such experience to qualify as acceptable to the Board, the applicant must be able to demonstrate to the Board that it was performed satisfactorily at a professional level. The following guidelines apply; please refer only to the experience listed in the "Acceptable" column in making your evaluation in the applicant's performance on page 3.

Acceptable

- (a) Administering and interpreting tests
- (b) (1) Providing treatment
(2) Planning and recommending detailed psychological procedures based on an analysis of an individual's or organization's needs.
- (c) (1) Direct involvement in the full sequence of designing, implementing, analyzing, interpreting and reporting of psychological research.
(2) Teaching with full responsibility for psychology classes or work shops.

Not Acceptable

- Administering and scoring tests
- Observing treatment sessions
- Implementing in a direct way the recommendations of another professional.
- Computing statistics or implementing research procedures designed by someone else.
- Assisting instructors in psychology classes.

D. In making your assessments below, please refer only to the applicant's acceptable work experience in psychology as defined by the guidelines above and indicate your evaluation of it.
